

Ms. Gall. Oct. 9

Binding:

Original brown leather binding. The back cover is a kind of a sheet of the volume.

History:

The manuscript is an autograph. It is a journal written during a travel from the 8th of August 1754 to the 12th of January 1757. The place of writing can be determined by reconstructing the course of the journey: S. Peterbourg, Wybourg (écrit aussi Wibourg), Fredericshaven, Louise, Borgo, Helsingfors, Åbo (Abo), Alandshaf (Alands-Haff), Isle d'Aland, Stockholm, Upsala, Ulrichsdal, Drottingholm, Pad's de Suede, Provinces de Suede, Helsingborg, Copenhagen, Le grand Belt, Hiebourg en fionie, Fionie, Hasersleben, Flensbourg, Rendsburg, Hambourg, Altona, Lubeck, Luterin, Swerin, Grabow, Fehrbellin, Berlin, Potsdam, Sanssouci, Magdebourg, Halberstatt, Duderstatt, Göttingen, Casselles, Eisenach, Gotha, Smaladen, Cobourg. The manuscript is not in the Berlin's Königliche Bibliothek accession register, which means it must have reached the library before 1828 – the year of establishment of the accession register. The above is confirmed by Friedrich Wilken (cf. "Geschichte der Königlichen Bibliothek zu Berlin," Berlin, 1828) who lists 10 French copies "in octavo" which could be found in the Königlichen Bibliothek before 1828.
