

Ms. Gall. Quart. 134

Binding:

Half-binding: spine of red leather, covers covered with red linen; similar binding used for Gall. Quart. 135, made in Batavia (former name of Jakarta).

History:

On the basis of the date: 187... from the table (see fol. 11r<sup>o</sup>) the manuscript is dated to the 1870s. The copy was made probably on the island of Java (being at that time under the strong supremacy of the Dutch). Prior to its inclusion to the Königliche Bibliothek collection in Berlin, the copy belonged to another library whose stamp is visible on fol. 1r<sup>o</sup> : BIBLIOTHEK VAN DE INSTELLING VOOR ONDERWIJS IN DE TAAL-, LAND- EN VOLKENKUNDE VAN NEDERLANDSCH INDIË TE DELFT. The manuscript was entered to the accession register of the Königliche Bibliothek under accession No. 1906.296 on the 27th of March 1907, together with the information about its origin: « De Stoppelaar (S. Brillische Buchhandlung in Leiden) ». The volume comes from the same collection as Ms. Gall. Quart. 134.
